

Bicentennial Fall Events

All these events are on the 3rd floor of the Town Hall.

October 24th

CPR course 7-9

November

7th Essex Antique Road Show with Michael March 7-9pm

Bring that "family heirloom" have Michael tell you if it is a treasure or a bust.

9th Saturday Stories 10-12

Come hear stories of Essex in the not so distant past. Hear about how the Town rallied to build the Elementary School playground. Who are some of the famous people who have lived here. Who was John Wise, Rufus Choate and others?

11th Veterans Day remembrance 7-8:30

Who was Harry Homan? Why do we start our Memorial Day Ceremony at the memorial stone of Herbert Goodhue, who was he? Learn about these and other veterans of Essex. View pictures of Essex Veterans in their younger days. Hear about the book "The Green Box" written by Ipswich resident, Jim Kurtz.

14th Shep Means will be talking clams, the tools and history 7-8

Lisa Clarke 1st meeting house 8-9

21st Join us as we learn about some of the historical buildings in town. 7-9

The history of the first meeting halls in Town. What is the Paul Revere bell made of? What important roll did it play in Essex? How many fire stations have we had in town and where were they?

December

22nd Winter Solstice Celebration 1-5

Join the Bicentennial Committee as we wrap up a year of events celebrating Essex' 200th birthday. We will have music, pictures, refreshments and videos of the year's events.